

Family Unity Night Highlights

Happy faces among the members of the Clements family, also joining in the family-style dinner at the Neu-Life Center.

Also at the Neu-Life Center, the Chalmers family won a food basket. Bell hold plaque showing proclamation made by Mayor Tom Barrett declaring the 2nd Thursday of each October as Family Unity Night.

The Revels family at the COA center also won a food basket. The Family Unity Night was sponsored by the Teen Pregnancy Prevention Network, one of the coalitions working under the Brighter Futures banner.

The Taylor family stands before the Teen Pregnancy Prevention Network banner as they receive basket at the Silver Spring Neighborhood Center.

The TPPN's Youth Ambassadors were a key part of the F.U.N. program; the youth assembled the baskets and delivered them to winning families.
